

PA Comm Mtg

4-20-10

Comments from the last meeting were distributed.

Scale drawings of headquarters and a proposed sub-station were presented along with scale representations of the district vehicles. These could be used to look at various vehicles placements and space requirements.

There was discussion about radio communications, where it is headed in the fire department, the town, and the county.